For Social Media Tools

Make sure to post the event and calendar it on the CGSSA website: CGSSA.Org

If you need an account please let me know: Jacob@CGSSA.Org

Once you have posted the event on the CGSSA website, use the Social Media buttons to cross post across all the outlets, make sure to have a CGSSA link (created by default when you post and calendar) in the post so the viewer can goto one information hub and travel to other needed locations like eventbrite.

Finally, I do realize that this is a great deal of typing work, but when you are done you will be reaching these communities:

Most of CALGUNS, Firearms Owners on Facebook, Twitter, Google +, CAL NRA members, Instagram, Pinterest and others still lurking. This means your one message has the potential of reaching 2 million Californians.
